AGENDA

10:00 – 10:30     Introductory session for new members

Jeremy Johnson

If this is going to be your first meeting with us, we would like to invite you to come to a brief introductory session. Jeremy is a neurologist working in the Dementia Research Centre, UCL, and he will give a short introductory presentation on PPA, and to meet other people also with us for the first time.

10:30 – 11:00     REGISTRATION WITH TEA & COFFEE

11:00 – 11:10     Welcome and special notices

Jason Warren

11:10 – 12:00     Small group discussions

We will break out into small informal discussion groups where you can talk to people about whatever you would find most useful. A member of the PPA Support Group team will be present in each group and will take anonymized notes, so that we can write up any helpful answers and share these with everybody after the meeting.

12:00 – 13:00     LUNCH

13:00 – 14:00     Holistic support

Nikki Zimmermann

Nikki is the newest member of our PPA Support Group team, and we are delighted that she has joined us as the Rare Dementia Support Groups Advisor. In this session, Nikki will introduce herself, tell us about her background and experience, and explain about what she can do to help support members.

14:00                 Formal close of Support Group
